

What People are Saying about the Boulder Fringe

“In its third year, the Boulder International Fringe Festival is living up to the second word of its name.”

- Rocky Mountain News

The Fringe “give[s] you the chance to catch a lot of cutting edge work in a very short time”

- Andy Propst (AmericanTheaterWeb.com)

“One of Boulder's most unusual festivals”

- Denver CBS4

"I've met the most amazing people in the first 27 minutes of being here."

- Brandi Shigley (Fashion Denver)

“As an artist it is wonderful to be able to see so many great shows for free and to receive 100% of the box office.”

- Christa Ray (Giving Voice Productions)

“The various locations for the shows seemed to cover a lot of interesting ground, from coffee shops and galleries to full-blown stages...we felt very loved by the time we left.”

- Cortney McGuire & Leah Nelson (fivefour Productions)

“This was the best, most seamless fringe of the four I did this summer.”

- Mark "Bad Dad" Whitney

“The festival was an amazing opportunity and experience for me”

- Mary Kelly

“Our favorite part of the fringe was the ongoing opportunities to connect with other artists, volunteers and audience members through the parties, Laughing Goat, 1-minute excerpts, and the ever-present humor and good nature of [Eddie the Eskimo].”

- Barry and Jessica (Nicoll + Oreck Productions)

The Fringe is great because of “The overall excitement about performing arts, the amount of performances and quality, bringing amazing talent into Boulders’ consciousness... I thank you for the opportunity to create a “fringe-y” type of performance and have it supported by the larger umbrella of The Fringe Festival.”

- Lyra Mayfield (Lyra Mayfield Dances)

“I'm concerned because I think this year's Fringe is the best yet and I've had a big goofy grin on my face all week. You will be hearing from my legal counsel if this condition doesn't pass soon.”

- Roger (via myspace.com)